

Eager to help Hartsfield-Jackson build a better airport over the next 20 years? Join us March 5th for ATLNext Industry Day to learn about the Airport's multibillion-dollar capital improvement program underway. Also featured this year is the Inaugural Maynard H. Jackson Jr. Legacy Awards Luncheon.

The day promises to be filled with interactive sessions for companies providing construction and construction related services. The event will include:

- An ATLNext Capital Improvement Program Update
- Workshops and Panel Discussions
- Industry Roundtables
- Networking Expo
