

Junior Summer Institutes

Training the Next Generation of Diverse Leaders in Public Policy and International Affairs

PPIA Junior Summer Institute (JSI) is a rigorous, intensive seven-week summer program of classes and co-curricular activities promoting the professional and personal development of emerging diverse leaders in public service. The JSI curriculum is structured to introduce or strengthen skills in economics, statistics, policy analysis, writing, and public speaking.

JUNIOR SUMMER INSTITUTE BENEFITS

- Full tuition at a PPIA Junior Summer Institute
- Eligibility to receive assistance with travel expenses
- A stipend of up to $1,500 (funding determined by each JSI)
- University housing with a meal plan
- Books and related course materials at your JSI
- GRE preparation assistance and career guidance coaching

Additional benefits upon completion.

2019 PROGRAM DATES

JUNE 9 – JULY 28

Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan

JUNE 9 – JULY 27

Goldman School of Public Policy, University of California, Berkeley

JUNE 9 – JULY 27

Humphrey School of Public Affairs, University of Minnesota

JUNE 12 – AUGUST 2

Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University

JUNE 13 – AUGUST 3

Heinz College of Information Systems and Public Policy,
Carnegie Mellon University

APPLY AT PPIAPROGRAM.ORG BY NOVEMBER 1